SUGGESTIONS FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS:

In the interests of safety and enjoyment, please:

1. Ensure that your membership is current. Prospective members are welcome and encouraged to come out on about 3 trips before joining. This gives you a change to meet other people in the club and see what the trips involve.
2. Talk with the trip leader to see if the trip is appropriate for your abilities.
3. Bring personal first aid supplies and adequate equipment. The leader can advise you about obtaining equipment.
4. Learn about the proposed route.
5. Sign the waiver form.
6. Advise the trip leader if you have a relevant medical condition(s) when registering for the trip. Share this information with the group at the start of the trip.
7. Share expenses.
8. Respect decisions(s) of the leader.
9. Contact the trip leader by 9 p.m. three or four days prior to the trip. Most of the trips are full by this time, so it is advisable to phone earlier. If you need to cancel, call the leader as soon as possible.
10. Only paid-up members are covered by the Alpine Club of Canada's liability insurance.

MEMBERSHIP

WELCOME! THE BASIC FEE is for membership in three organizations:

- Vancouver Island Section of the Alpine Club of Canada (ACC)
- National level of the ACC
- Federation of Mountain Clubs of British Columbia (FMCBC)

Our local section offers mountaineering trips, a variety of social events, and publishes quarterly newsletters and an annual journal of the previous years mountaineering trips 'The Island Bushwhacker'.

The National membership entitles you to the following:

- quarterly national newsletters
- affiliation with Union Internationale d'Association Alpinistes (UIAA)
- member rates on ACC publications and maps
- member rates at the Canadian Alpine Centre at Lake Louise
- access to all nationally run camps
- programs and treks
- comprehensive liability insurance while participating in ACC activities

Through the FMCBC we have a stronger voice to deal with issues common to outdoor groups (eg. environmental and access concerns).

ACC FACILITIES UPGRADE: Choosing a facilities upgrade with your ACC membership entitles you to member rates at all ACC huts and the Canmore Clubhouse. In addition you are entitled to 6 month advance booking privileges to ensure there is space in your favourite hut.

CANADIAN ALPINE JOURNAL: The CAJ has been published annually since 1906 and features excellent articles and photos describing the achievements of Canadian climbers around the world. It is wonderful reading.

COMPLETE UPGRADE: Choosing the complete upgrade entitles you to all the benefits listed above at a reduced rate.
